

Introduction to Healing Come, Learn, Create Fellowship

This group is specifically geared to those who have recently discovered that sex addiction is present in their lives and relationships. This 6-week group is highly informational as well as focused on gaining community with other partners. This group is a safe non-judgmental environment where participants can ask questions and share experiences. Topics to be discussed are the Multi-Dimensional Trauma Model, trigger management, self care, boundaries, gaslighting, sexual trauma, etc. At the conclusion of the 6-week group, participants are invited to attend other Willow Tree Counseling partners of sex addict groups.
